

BRUCE HALE

Author Visit Information

Author Day Visit (grades K-6)

Have Bruce come visit your school and inspire kids to write, read, and be creative! A one-day visit includes three 50-minute presentations which may be customized to meet the school's needs. The school can choose between assemblies and writing workshops for its three sessions.

• Author Assembly (for grades K-6)

A blend of character education, stand-up comedy, and pro-literacy message, this highly interactive assembly includes:

- Storytelling from one of Bruce's books;
- Audiovisual presentation about his journey from reluctant reader to author;
- Question-and-answer session with the audience; and
- A brief cartooning lesson.

Although the basic presentation remains similar, Bruce will alter it for different grades to be age-specific. No limits on the number of students in an assembly.

• Story Power Workshop (grades 3-6— for groups of 100 or less)

Energize your writing program by introducing your students to the fundamentals of story writing in a fun, lively format. Session includes storytelling, the creative process, basic story elements, and the creation of a group story right on the spot.

Workshop is a 50-minute, interactive session – for no more than 100 students. Student and teacher workbooks are available for photocopying by school. For more information on Story Power workshop content, visit the website's How to Write a Story section at: www.brucehale.com/howto.htm

Note: Bruce is open to the possibility of a brief stop-in visit to kindergartners, if desired.

For those students and staff purchasing books, Bruce will gladly autograph them on the day of the visit, separate from the presentations. If your PTA is interested in earning some additional revenue by acting as the “bookseller,” please ask Bruce about this.

SKYPE SESSION ADD-ONS

If you’d like the positive impact of the author visit to last, consider doing follow-up Skype sessions with Bruce. These half-hour sessions can be customized to support the school’s goals. Topics include: 1) Quick Draw, a cartooning workshop; 2) Story Power Junior, a condensed writing workshop; and 3) Self-Editing Secrets, a follow-up to the Story Power workshop that helps student writers understand how and why to edit their work.

SCHOOL MUST PROVIDE

- Reimbursement for breakfast and a casual lunch on the day of the visit. Either a vegetarian or fish meal would be fine. (And Bruce is glad to dine with the teachers, staff, or selected kids.)
- An honorarium in the agreed-upon amount, delivered on the day of the school visit.
- A microphone, bottled water, small table, chalkboard and chalk (or white board/flip-chart and pens), and a PowerPoint projector with audio capabilities for the presentation. (Bruce will bring Mac laptop with adapter.)
- A presentation schedule that allows at least 10-15 minutes between sessions (for recovery time).

IMPORTANT: The key to a successful author visit lies in familiarizing students with the author’s work before the event. Please let Bruce know if you need copies of his books for this purpose; they will be provided at a scholastic discount.

OBTAINING BOOKS

An author visit inspires kids to read, and most schools take advantage of this by ordering books for students to buy and get autographed. You’ll find the best discount by obtaining books directly from Bruce’s publishers, most of whom offer a 40% discount and accept any unsold books back. You can also order from a local bookstore or online retailer like Amazon. Publishers’ customer service numbers are included in my attached booklist.

PLANNING RESOURCE

Terrific Connections with Authors, Illustrators, Storytellers: Real Space and Virtual Links by Toni Buzzeo and Jane Kurtz, makes a great faculty resource. Clear guidelines for a wonderful author visit and much more. Available from: Libraries Unlimited - 1-800-237-6124.

COSTS

Author Day

$2,000 per day plus expenses for three 50-minute presentations (or a prearranged alternative schedule) for out-of-state visits.

$1,100 for a visit in California outside the Santa Barbara area.

Skype Add-ons

$200 per session (normally $250)

(Please make out checks to Story Power Communications, Inc.)

For visits outside Bruce's home area, transportation and lodging expenses will be covered by event sponsor.

Introduction for BRUCE HALE

Our speaker, Bruce Hale, was raised by wolves just outside Los Angeles.

[PAUSE]

At least that's what he says. Bruce believes he has the best job in the world. He's written or illustrated over 40 seriously funny books for kids. He's visited schools and libraries from New York to New Delhi. He's ridden the library's float in a parade, and judged a chocolate chip cookie baking contest. And one of his Clark the Shark books even ended up in a McDonald's Happy Meal. (Not the way you think.)

He comes to us today all the way from Santa Barbara, California. Please help me welcome...
Bruce Hale.

NOVELS

The Curse of the Were-Hyena

What do you do when your favorite teacher starts turning into a were-hyena? When best friends Carlos and Benny decide to find out what's happening to Mr. Chu, they get caught up in some serious moonlight madness. And it looks like just the beginning of the weirdness that has arrived in the town of Monterrosa... or should we say, Monstertown?

• "A series kickoff with a promising mix of chills and chortles." Kirkus Reviews

Mutant Mantis Lunch Ladies!

How well do you know the lunch servers at your school? Sure, they seem like nice people, but what if they're secretly something much, much weirder? Best friends Carlos and Benny are called upon to investigate strange goings-on in the cafeteria, and they find it's going to take a lot of courage — and more than an industrial-sized can of Raid — to avoid extermination.

• "Along with trotting in a cast of exemplary diversity... Hale spins the scenario in wild and hilarious directions." Kirkus Reviews

Disney-Hyperion, 2017, 208 pages, ISBN 978-1-4847-1324-2, $14.99 hardback, ages 8-12 • Call 800-759-0190 for author visit book orders.

Invasion of the Scorp-Lions!

Something is very wrong at Monterrosa Elementary. Weird noises and funky smells are coming through the classroom vents. Could the school be haunted? When one of their classmates falls into a coma, best friends Carlos and Benny know it's time to call in the best monster hunters they know: each other. But when the monsters multiply, the duo worries they may be in over their heads on their toughest case yet!

• "The perfect choice for reluctant readers and adventure lovers." Huffington Post

School for S.P.I.E.S.: Thicker Than Water

Max Segredo and his fellow trainee spies have the fight of their life, as Merry Sunshine Orphanage is being threatened from without and within. LOTUS is trying to drive the school out of business, and S.P.I.E.S.’s last hope rests on stealing a mind-control device for an eccentric billionaire. The catch? LOTUS is after it too, and time is running out.

• “This entry boasts a generous balance of droll narration, comedic dialogue, and racing action.” The Bulletin of the Center for Children’s Books

The Mystery of Mr. Nice

When Chet is sent to the principal's office, he stumbles on a fiendish plot involving a bogus Principal Zero. Chet's first clue: the principal was nice to him. Now it's up to the school's best lizard detective (with the help of his partner, Natalie Attired) to save Emerson Hicky Elementary from a gang of crooks.

Farewell, My Lunchbag

Chet Gecko's hunger for mystery is matched only by his appetite for treats such as stinkbug pie. So when the cafeteria needs help catching a food thief, Chet digs into the case with gusto. But this time he may have bitten off more than he can chew — the culprit has framed Chet, and the gecko detective has to work double-time to clear his name and catch the real thief.

- "A Raymond Chandler/Woody Allen literary blend." School Library Journal

Harcourt Inc., 2001, 112 pages, ISBN 0-15-202275-9, $14 hardback, $5.99 paper, ages 8-12

The Big Nap

One by one, the students of Emerson Hicky are being won over by the dark side ...and becoming mindless goody-goodies. No one talks in class, no one complains about homework — heck, the line to clean the chalkboard erasers is out the door! Chet suspects the new librarian — a zombie expert who's as shady as a Louisiana weeping willow. But time's running out. Can Chet save the school, or will he and Natalie find themselves sleeping The Big Nap?

Harcourt Inc., 2001, 112 pages, ISBN 0-15-202521-9, $14 hardback, $5.99 paper, ages 8-12

The Hamster of the Baskervilles

Vandalism rocks Emerson Hicky School. Who is responsible? Is it the suspicious librarian, Cool Beans? The campus gang, the Dirty Rotten Stinkers? Or is something supernatural going on? Chet and Natalie get to the bottom of it.

- "The zany text reads like a mixture of stand-up comedy...and a fourth grader on an overdose of sugar." School Library Journal

Harcourt Inc., 2002, 128 pages, ISBN 0-15-202503-0, $14 hardback, $5.99 paper, ages 8-12

This Gum For Hire

Chet goes undercover on the football team when players start disappearing. His client? Chet's old nemesis, Herman the Gila Monster. So if he doesn't crack the case, his client might crack his head. But fear not. With Natalie Attired at his side, this gecko's got game.

- Winner of the Choices Award from the Association of Booksellers for Children.
- "Will have you giggling out loud and wishing for more." Boston Sunday Herald

Harcourt Inc., 2002, 115 pages, ISBN 0-15-202491-3, $14 hardback, $5.99 paper, ages 8-12

The Malted Falcon

When the winning ticket in the Malted Falcon contest goes missing, Freddie Nostrils hires Chet and Natalie to find it. Just what is the Malted Falcon? Only the biggest, chocolatiest dessert imaginable. But to get his hands on it, Chet must contend with lying clients, double-dealing marmots, and his own serious sweet tooth.

- "The sleuth with the smart mouth shows no signs of slowing down... and should continue to draw fans like fleas to a dog show." Kirkus Reviews
- Edgar Award finalist, the Mystery Writers of America

Harcourt Inc., 2003, 115 pages, ISBN 0-15-216706-4, $14 hardback, $5.99 paper, ages 8-12

Trouble Is My Beeswax

A cheating ring is discovered at Emerson Hicky Elementary, with Chet's old friend Shirley Chameleon fingered as the ringleader. Chet and Natalie undertake to prove her innocence as a matter of honor. Or stupidity. It's so hard to tell the difference sometimes.

Harcourt Inc., 2003, 128 pages, ISBN 0-15-216718-8, $14 hardback, $5.99 paper, ages 8-12

Give My Regrets to Broadway

It's no mystery. Chet Gecko can't sing, can't dance, and can't act. (Heck, he can't even act normal.) So why has he taken the lead in the school play? A new case, of course. And Chet doesn't know which is scarier: the ghost haunting the theater, or his third-act lip-lock with Shirley Chameleon.

- "Plenty of satisfying silliness in the cast of buffoonish teachers, Chet's tough-guy appeal, and the usual repertoire of painfully corny puns and similes." Booklist

Harcourt Inc., 2004, 128 pages, ISBN 0-15-216700-5, $14 hardback, $5.99 paper, ages 8-12

Murder, My Tweet

Natalie Attired is framed for blackmail and booted out of Emerson Hicky. Chet, of course, tackles the case for free. But just when it looks like he might clear her name, Natalie disappears, leaving behind a reddish smear. Is it murder, or something serious?

- IRA-CBC Children's Choice for Best Books of 2005
- Winner of the Little d Award from Children's Literature Connection

Harcourt Inc., 2004, 128 pages, ISBN 0-15-205012-4, $14 hardback, $5.99 paper, ages 8-12

Chet Gecko's Detective Handbook (& Cookbook)

Revealed at last — stunning secrets and surprises from ace detective Chet Gecko's criminal casebook! This nifty (and very handy) handbook features tips and techniques for detective work, including suspects, evidence, documents, searches, and snacks!

Harcourt Inc., 2005, 272 pages, ISBN 0-15-205288-7, $9.95 hardback, ages 8-12

The Possum Always Rings Twice

It's muckraking time at Emerson Hicky. The race is on for student council president, but it's quickly getting fishier than the bottom of a pelican's lunchbox. Could someone be trying to rig the election? Chet and Natalie find politics is a scary (and dirty) business.

Harcourt Inc., 2006, 128 pages, ISBN 0-15-205075-2, $14 hardback, $5.99 paper, ages 8-12

Key Lardo

Has Chet Gecko at last met his sleuthing match? A new detective has arrived, and his name is Bland — James Bland. This upstart immediately cracks a case that has baffled Chet and Natalie. But when Bland goes missing, Chet's got to find him or face a stint behind bars — and we're not talking the jungle gym.

Harcourt Inc., 2006, 128 pages, ISBN 0-15-205074-4, $14 hardback, $4.99 paper, ages 8-12

Hiss Me Deadly

This time, it's personal. When a thief steals from Chet's little sister, the green gumshoe gets hopping mad. Only he is allowed to pick on his sister. But when valuables start vanishing from school, Chet finds he's caught up in a conspiracy that's bigger and scarier than a blue whale in a bikini.

Harcourt Inc., 2007, 144 pages, ISBN 0-15-205482-0, $14 hardback, $5.99 paper, ages 8-12

From Russia With Lunch

A mysterious Russian scientist, Dr. Tanya Lightov, comes to Emerson Hicky, and suddenly everything is topsy-turvy. Machines are replacing staff, teachers' pets are talking back, a coven of witches has convened, and — weirdest of all — Chet's partner Natalie has turned her back on him. Can Chet bring things back to normal — or what passes for normal at his school?

Harcourt, 2009, 128 pages, ISBN 978-0-15-205488-5, $14 hardback, $4.99 paper, ages 8-12

Dial M for Mongoose

What's going on at Emerson Hicky? A deadly stink bomb is unleashed, a building collapses to rubble, money goes missing — and that's just a start. Someone pins the blame on Chet's janitor pal Maureen DeBree, and it's up to Chet and Natalie to put things right. After all, Chet doesn't take that kind of monkey business lying down. (Standing up, maybe.)

Harcourt, 2009, 144 pages, ISBN 978-0-15-205494-6, $15 hardback, $5.99 paper, ages 8-12

Prince of Underwhere

It's half comic book, half novel, and totally hilarious. Zeke has his hands full: there's his prissy, know-it-all twin sister; his mean cousin Caitlyn who's house-sitting; and a bully making life tough at school. As if that wasn't enough, now Zeke has to deal with zombies, midget freedom fighters, and a weird world beneath our own where people wear their underwear on the outside of their clothes.

Pirates of Underwhere

The Underwhere comic/novel series continues with a tale from Zeke's sister, Stephanie. She'd like nothing better than to study for her Mathletes competition and polish her reputation as all-around homework champ. But thanks to Zeke, she has to deal with magical toilet brushes, sinister talking cats, nearsighted sea serpents, feminist pirates, and all the cottony-white weirdness of Underwhere.
